Introduction to Facial Reflexology Sorensensistem TM

Facial Reflexology is a therapeutic intervention in which stimulation of zones and points on the face are utilized to alleviate health conditions in other parts of the body.

Facial Reflexology Sorensensistem TM is a new generation complementary therapy, as it is a health treatment with a beauty benefit. Combining ancient alternative therapies: Chinese energy meridians and acupuncture points, Vietnamese and South American tribal body maps, with modern science of neuroanatomy.

The success and effectiveness of Facial Reflexology Sorensensistem TM lies in providing you with a system to identify the health imbalances within a client and provide you with the knowledge to initiate a healing process using the balancing properties drawn from the above disciplines. Protocols include cranial work, use of nerve points together with aspects of colour and aromatherapy, meridian balancing.

A treatment will usually take 45-50 minutes and the entire surface of the face is treated (except the eyelids). A natural improvement in the blood circulation, lymphatic drainage, muscle tone and nerve function all contribute to resulting in a glowing complexion AND improved health!
